

Opening Doors To a Rewarding Career in Housing

Your chance to make a difference.

Future Housing Leaders is an internship program that links diverse students with leading employers in a housing industry that's rapidly evolving. It's a tremendous opportunity to develop your skills for a fulfilling career.

The next generation of homebuyers and renters is a rich blend of cultures, races and genders, and they deserve a housing workforce that's just as dynamic. Future Housing Leaders can help you learn to use your unique perspectives to address the needs of our communities and better serve the market.

Future Housing Leaders is your shot at preparing for a career that can make a difference. It's where you can be a part of something bigger than yourself. Because everyone deserves a place to call home—and you can help open the door. Are you ready?

Use your voice, amplified by the strength of your experiences, to make positive changes in the housing industry. You'll benefit from:

- Paid summer internships that nurture leadership
- Expanded networking opportunities
- Firsthand experience in a dominant economic sector
- A respected résumé-builder led by premier employers
- Increased opportunities for post-graduation employment

Visit FutureHousingLeaders.com for more information.

@joinFHL

Discover career opportunities in:

Business

Finance

Policy

Operations

Information Technology

Communications/Marketing

Human Resources

Graphic Design

...and many more!

ANSWERS TO YOUR QUESTIONS

What is Future Housing Leaders?

Future Housing Leaders is an an internship program designed to enhance the recruitment of diverse entry-level talent across the housing industry by fostering and developing candidate pipelines so that the housing workforce better reflects the next generation of increasingly diverse renters and homebuyers. Future Housing Leaders links colleges and universities with diverse student populations to leading employers in the housing industry.

How does it work?

Future Housing Leaders is an internship program that makes it possible for housing employers to expand their applicant pipeline to top diverse talent. Through strategic alliances between Fannie Mae, the National Urban League, institutes of higher learning, and leading national Employer Partners, students are given the opportunity to explore exciting careers in housing.

What types of internships are offered?

Internships vary by employer, spanning disciplines as dynamic as the housing industry, including business, information technology, finance, accounting, audit, risk management, operations, human resources, policy, communications, marketing, graphic design and more.

Are the internships paid?

Yes! Future Housing Leaders internships can last up to two years, and all students are paid.